

Is this your first District 39 conference? Are you a FIRST TIMER?

Or are you curious what to expect from this conference?

We are here to help!

Here are some tips to help familiarize you with District 39 Spring Conference:

1. UPON ARRIVAL: Please follow the signs to the REGISTRATION desk and register.
If you are a first timer: After you register, look for the "First Timer's" section in the registration area and play the game – this will be explained when you register.
2. MEET: Plan to meet at least two people from different clubs, find out what part of the district they are currently active.
3. CONFERENCE PROGRAM: please review the program and consider which events and educational sessions you would like to attend; you can always change your mind later.
4. WHAT TO WEAR? for the conference:
  - FRIDAY NIGHT: Fun night theme: "Diamonds are a girl's best friend". Dress up in your Best! Your favorite cocktail or evening wear and dress it up with diamonds and bling.
  - SATURDAY DAY: Business casual attire. Dress in layers no matter what the weather is like outside to accommodate for room temperatures.
  - SATURDAY DINNER: This is your opportunity to dress up in your formal wear. Don't forget your DTM medal! Wear it proudly, you earned it!
5. CANDIDATES NETWORKING HOUR: Friday, 6-7 pm is your opportunity to meet the qualified candidates that are running for Division and District office. Come with your and your club's questions to ask the candidates.
6. FRIDAY FUN NIGHT: Be entertained and meet Toastmasters from all over District 39. There will be an opening act, Triple Crown recognition, ice-pictures, dancing, socializing and District 39 history.

7. SATURDAY OPENING CEREMONY: Kick off the conference with pride! Saturday is filled with our keynote Ed Tate (www.edtate.com), educational sessions, the Table Topic and International Speech contest and the business meeting, and a plethora of opportunities to meet great Toastmasters and to have fun.
8. CLUB REGISTRATION: Clubs who are not registered for the full conference are able to attend the keynote speaker and educational sessions for no charge if the club pays the $15 registration fee. A la carte pricing is also available for the meals, contests and the Sunday morning breakfast with Ed Tate.
9. VOTING: If you are voting on behalf of your club, please locate the credentials desk and pick up your ballots before the Saturday business meeting.
10. RAFFLE: Every club is encouraged to donate a raffle basket. Get creative and create a themed basket! Some past basket themes included: book lovers, wine, gardening, coffee, movies, etc. Conference attendees purchase raffle tickets and put their tickets by the basket they would like to win. The winning tickets are drawn throughout the event. Winning numbers are posted on a white board near the baskets so check back often. Proceeds help offset the costs of the conference.
11. BONUS BREAKFAST WITH A CHAMP: On Sunday morning experience Ed Tate “unplugged”. Ed Tate will answer all of your questions at breakfast. There is a separate registration and charge for this incredible event.
12. RELAX, LEARN and ENJOY the conference.
